4-H Camp Code of Conduct
Harnett County 4-H Reminders

Parents: Please go over these reminders with your child before departing for camp.

⇒ Campers shall be in their cabins and quiet at the time determined by Camp personnel and leaders.
  ○ Boys are not to go in girls’ cabins and girls are not to go in boys’ cabins at any time unless accompanied by authorized Camp personnel or Adult 4-H leaders.
  ○ Other specifics regarding facility boundaries will be reviewed on the first day of camp.

⇒ Campers shall participate fully in all programs.

⇒ Campers shall show respect for personnel, property and facilities used and assume financial responsibility for any damages they cause.

⇒ Campers conduct at all times shall be appropriate to the standards and image of the 4-H program. Participants must abide by rules and regulations of the 4-H camp.

⇒ Campers shall not engage in any conduct that could harm themselves or other persons, or jeopardize the safety of themselves or others. Fighting or dangerous pranks will result in the camper being dismissed from camp. Families are responsible for transportation home.

⇒ Campers shall not engage in any conduct that disrupts or interferes with the 4-H camp programs.

⇒ All medications are to be turned in to the Camp health personnel and not kept in the cabin. Health forms will be collected at check in.
  ○ Prescription medications should arrive at camp in the original containers with the name of the camper on the container.

⇒ Use and/or possession of drugs, alcohol, tobacco, knives and other items deemed dangerous is strictly forbidden. Violation of this policy will result in immediate dismissal from camp.

⇒ Use and/or possession of firearms are permitted only when participating in the 4-H Shooting Sports programs. Traditional 4-H Resident Camp will only include archery as a form of shooting sports. All equipment will be provided by camp.

-Over-
Radios, cell phones, video games and other expensive items should not be brought to camp. Camp is not responsible for loss or damage to personal property.

Failure to obey the reasonable instructions of staff may result in dismissal from camp or other discipline. Families are responsible for transportation home.

A daily part of the camp program experience is for camper to be included in daily camp duties such as cleaning restrooms, dining hall and living spaces.
